For example, if in a small company context I want to ensure that my constituents, which are my shareholders, are okay with a	corporate attorney working on a transaction is to assist the directors in meeting their fiduciary duties. Is that fair? A. I don't know. MR. GILLIGAN: Excuse me. I object to your restating. You know, you ask a question, he gives an answer. I don't want you restating his testimony. If you don't understand it, ask him a question about what you don't understand. MR. BRAUTIGAM: Lou, we're doing fine. We don't need speaking objections. MR. GILLIGAN: I'm sorry? Excuse me? MR. BRAUTIGAM: I said we're doing fine, we don't need speaking objections. MR. them. And I may be able to talk every single one of them about it to satisfy myself that the transaction may move forward, whereas that's not feasible in a public setting. I'm not sure -- I mean, there may be other differences, but that's certainly one that comes to mind.

Q When you're working as an attorney on a merger and acquisition, is it part of your job to ensure that the directors meet their fiduciary responsibilities?

Q. Why not?

A. Well, when you -- when you use "ensure," I think -- that implies a lot to me. I think that the role of a corporate attorney representing a company, you know, certainly can include advice to the Board regarding their tiduciary duties.

And that would be -- that would be normal, but when you -- your question was are we obligated to ensure that the Board satisfies their fiduciary duties. I don't think that is our obligation.

20 MR. BURKE: Objection to form.

21 Calls for a narrative.

22 A. Well, again, the role that you 23 have in a given transaction depends on a lot of different things, you know, depending on the type of company you represent, whether they

What do I do? Q. Right. A. Well, I meet when Board meetings are called, which are twice a year. We discuss	Page 14	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	people that do that. But in Lucrum's case I'm integrally involved in the business planning process for them. Q. Okay. And with respect to DBA Direct, what are your duties and responsibilities as a director? A. Well, it's kind of similar to Lucrum. It's also a small company, privately held, about a $5 million a year company. And I'm on the Board there, but also have more of a business planning role with them as well. Q. Do you serve on any committees of any of these Boards of the privately held companies? A. Not at the current time, but I have in the past. Q. Okay. What Boards have you served excuse me, what committees have you served on? A. Compensation committees and audit committees. Q. Okay. What are the duties and responsibilities of the audit committee of a non-public company? A. Well, in the case of an audit	Page 1

- 16 Q. Okay. What do you do as a 17 director for that company?
- A. Well, in that case part of what I 18 19 assist the company in doing in my role as a director is to assist them with -- and this really isn't, I guess, a role that is inherent in being a director -- you don't have to do this as a director, but I assist them with their business planning, whereas with Worldwide 25 I don't really do that, they have in-house

In the case of -- actually for a nonprofit Northern Kentucky University Foundation. I am currently serving as the audit committee chairman. 22 23 Q. And as the audit committee 24 chairman and also in your work as an attorney. 25 you have to be familiar with the concept of definition that's less than book length? A. Well, in the context of a given transaction, you may have several definitions of materiality. For example, there may be a set dollar amount that is defined by the parties as material in the context of a given issue. For example, any litigation in excess of a hundred thousand dollars could be defined as material litigation in that context.

in another transaction you could have a definition of any litigation excess of $1 million. And both definitions would be equally apropos, depending upon the context or circumstances in which the definition is being used.

We find this all the time in connection with audit reports and audit letter requests that are submitted to us as attorneys from accounting firms, because they'll often define materiality in different ways, depending upon the company's size and markets and circumstances and -- and other circumstances.

Q. When you talked about a set dollar amount for materiality, is that sometimes known as a materiality threshold?

MR. BRAUTIGAM: Lou, we're doing fine. The witness understands the question. Let him answer it, please. We don't need speaking objections.

THE WITNESS: Can you repeat the question, please?

BY MR. BRAUTIGAM:

Q. What do you understand the term conflict of interest to mean?

MR. BURKE: Objection, vague.

14 15 A. Well, like your question about 16 materiality, it can mean a lot of different 17 things, Mike. There can be all different kinds of conflicts between people and the various interests that they have. We talked in terms 19 20 of, for example, business conflicts of 21 interest.

22 There are legal conflicts of 23 interest. There's conflicts of interest that might rise to the level of a disciplinary violation, you know, under the Canon of Ethics,

16	MR. GILLIGAN: Does that have

19	MR. BRAUTIGAM: Yes.
20	MR. GILLIGAN: All right, then

Q. And by "pending litigation," I mean the Thiemann case, not only the suit against KMK. MR. GILLIGAN: You're asking about both cases? 6 MR. BRAUTIGAM: KMK was sued in 7 this case as well. 8 MR. BURKE: That's not true, Mike. That's a misrepresentation. That's a misrepresentation. In fact, your motion for leave to amend was denied, so that's a false 12 Statement. 13 MR. BRAUTIGAM: That's not a false 14 statement. Jim. 15 MR. BURKE: That is a false 16 statement 17 MR. BRAUTIGAM: KMK was sued at 18 various times in this litigation. 19 MR. GILLIGAN: What do you mean by 20 "this litigation," and I'll let him answer. 21 MR. BURKE: Which litigation? 22 MR. BRAUTIGAM: The Thiemann 23 litigation. 24 MR. BURKE: That's false. That motion to leave for amend was denied and that's just heard about it, you know. We have a big office and someone just, you know, told me KMK was a defendant in the case involving OHSL and 1 Provident. 5 Q. Did that concern you? A. Not really. Ó Q Did you want to know more facts 8 about why KMK had been sued? 9 A. No. 10 Q. Why not? 11 MR. BURKE: Objection to 12 relevance. 13 A. Because it wasn't necessary for me to know that. We have competent people handling these kinds of things and it just didn't concern me. 16 17 Q Who is handling the litigation 18 against KMK? 19 A. I don't know. 20 Q. Did you ever talk to Gary Kreider 21 about the pending litigation? 22 A. No. 23 Q. Did you ever talk to David 24 Rosenberg about the pending litigation? 25 A. No.

BURKE: Objection, Misstates 7 the record. 8 MR. BRAUTIGAM: Whether the 9 Amended Complaint or Second Amended Complaint 10 will be accepted or not is still an open 11 question. 12 MR. GILLIGAN: Okav. Well, the question is whether or not Mr. Matthews talked 13 14 to these gentlemen about this litigation? 15 MR. BRAUTIGAM: Correct. 16 MR. GILLIGAN Being the Thiemann 17 litigation, period? 18 A. The answer is still no. BY MR. BRAUTIGAM: 19 Q. Okay. Did you ever talk to Mark 20 21 Reuter about this litigation? 22 A. No. 23 Q. Did you ever talk to John Winstead 24 about this litigation? 25 A. And I understand that in one of the other depositions apparently Mr. Fischer, who was representing the lawyers from the firm, who wasn't able to be here today and that's why I'm taking over, allowed him -- allowed the witness to testify about that. But I want to -- I'm that, showed up on my desk. And I'm not sure -- I wasn't ever personally served with a subpoens. I don't know - I don't know how that happened exactly, but I think my secretary gave it to me, so it just showed up on my deak 6 as some things -- some things do.

7 Q. So you were never present at that 8 time in the meeting when Mr. Burke apparently talked about litigation strategy and what type 10 of questions would be asked at the deposition?

A. No.

21 Q. Did you subsequently meet with Mr.

23 A. Well, I recently did. I met

24 yesterday with Mr. Fischer and Mr. Gilligan.

going to let him go ahead and answer the questions as one of the other witnesses did, even though I, quite frankly, don't agree that that's a proper area of inquiry, but I just want to state that for the record.

A. Well, first of all, Mike, I think the meeting you're referring to is a meeting -the only meeting I'm aware of is a meeting in maybe late July. And as I said, I was late for

The purpose of the meeting in my mind was to discuss -- I had been subpoenaed, so to discuss what my responsibilities were in terms of showing up and when that was going to be scheduled to give the participants an indication of when I would be available and whether that would be -- you know, that could 18 be suitably arranged with you as to place and time and whatnot. So as far as I was 20 concerned, that was the sole purpose of the meeting. Nothing substantive was discussed in my presence at that meeting. Q. When had you been subpoensed?

A. Well, actually I just got a copy of a subpoena maybe, maybe the week prior to that meeting last?

A. Well, there were two separate meetings.

Q. Approximately how long did these meetings last?

A. I would say about a total of an hour and 20 minutes.

Q. Do you have an hourly rate at KMK?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. What is that hourly rate? 10

A. $350.

12 And are you charging for your 13

time?

15 Q Are you paying Mr. Fischer or Mr.

16 Gilligan for their time?

MR. BURKE. Objection to

Not that I know of.

A. Do you mean whether it carried?

Q. Yes. Whether it carried, how it carried, if it was overwhelming. How would you describe the shareholder vote?

A. My only recollection, Mike, would be that the vote was sufficient under the charter documents of OHSL to approve the transaction and to allow the merger to proceed. I don't recall what percentage the vote was or 12 whether it was a large percentage or a small 13 percentage.

Q. Okay. Let me hand you what has been previously marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit I and ask you to take a look at it.

MR. BURKE: Objection to form.

A. I'm not sure what you mean by "follow." I, I -- as responsible for the entire -- as, you know, the primary outside counsel responsible for the transaction, yes, I was aware that a vote was taking place that was necessary to consummate the transaction.

And, of course, I was interested in what the vote was, whether it carried the day or not. As to the particulars of the vote, no, I would not have concerned myself with the particulars of the vote.

Q. What is your understanding of how the vote went?

MR. BURKE: Objection to form. MR. GILLIGAN: If you don't know what he means by "went," I think you just ask him to clarify the question, rather than speculate on what he means

MR. GILLIGAN: Well, could you go ahead and identify where it's from for me? MR. BRAUTIGAM: That's what I'm about to do. 5 MR. GILLIGAN: Okay, thanks. 6 MR. BRAUTIGAM: It's in the Nolte 7 case, Tuesday, February 22nd, 2000, page 21. 8 MR. GILLIGAN: Could you give me 9 the caption of it? I'm not familiar with it, 10 the name of the case. 11 MR. BRAUTIGAM: Why don't I give 12 you a copy at the break? 13 MR. GILLIGAN: Well, I would like 14 to, as counsel, just have a context of what it's in, that's all I'm asking. 16 MR. BRAUTIGAM: That's fine. 17 Court of Common Pleas, Hamilton County, Ohio, Janet Nolte, et al., Plaintiffs, versus OHSL Financial Corporation, et al., case number 20 A99 --21 MR. BURKE: Off the record. 22 (Brief recess.) 23 MR. BRAUTIGAM: Mr. Gilligan, have you had the opportunity to get the information you needed about the prior case?

A. Well, I had -- I was in discussions with Cliff Roe, you know, 3 intensively for a period of a couple weeks as we were negotiating the merger agreement. And 4 it was -- and also with the investment banking 5 firm which was representing OHSL, so I would have been generally aware of the attitudes of the participants about the transaction. And as far as I knew, everybody was very positive about it and thought it was in the best 10 11 interest of the company. 12 Q. Is that true for Ken Hanauer as well? 13 MR. BURKE: Objection to form. 14 15 A. I -- I believed it was true. Certainly I had every reason to think it was 17 true, based upon what other people had told me. 18 But had -- I had not talked to Ken Hanauer personally about his -- his opinions about the 20 transaction, nor would that have been proper. 21 Q. Okay. Let me represent to you that Mr. Hanauer gave this testimony --22 23 MR. GILLIGAN: Is the testimony in 24 this case? 25 MR. BRAUTIGAM: No, it's not.

MR. GILLIGAN: Yes, thank you. 2 MR. BRAUTIGAM: You're welcome. MR. GILLIGAN: What page did you say that was again? MR. BRAUTIGAM: Twenty-one, lines 6 11 to 14. BY MR. BRAUTIGAM. 8 Q. Let me represent to you that this is testimony that Mr. Hanauer gave in the Nolte state court litigation. And he was asked this question: In your heart, did you believe that 12 this transaction was in the best interest of 13 the shareholders? 14 Answer: No. sir. 15 Is that something that you would have wanted to have known as the lead outside 17 counsel in the merger transaction? 18 MR. BURKE: Objection. Misstates 19 the record. You read two sentences out of a 20 150 page deposition. Mischaracterizes the 21 record. 22 MR. MAUNDRELL: I'll join in with 23 it. 24 MR. BURKE: Also no time frame.

A. Yes, Mike, when -- when I was working with Cliff on this transaction to į negotiate an agreement, as I said before, it was my understanding that the directors were 3 fully behind the transaction. And so -- and if I recall correctly, Ken signed the agreement 5 that, that, you know, in favor of this 6 7 transaction. 8

And furthermore, the company had agreed -- or the -- at least we had discussed with Cliff Roe that -- the concept that, that the officers and directors were in favor of the transaction. So, yes, I would have been totally surprised.

At the time the definitive agreement was signed, it was my understanding, 15 as I've said before, that everybody was in favor of this and, in fact, enthusiastic about it, because they had been -- if I recall correctly, they had been bidding -- they had bids out over a period of months and tried to find other people to buy this company and Provident's bid was the best. So yes, I would have liked to have known that, because it would have been news to me.

bid, but, yes, I was generally aware of the fact that there were other institutions that were looking at OHSL and that -- for various reasons those, those bids or those indications of interest did not measure up.

Q. Did they result in bids, to your knowledge?

MR. BURKE: Objection. Asked and answered.

A. I don't recall.

Q. Is it possible that Provident's bid was the best because it was the only bid? MR. GILLIGAN: Objection.

MR. BURKE: Objection. Calls for speculation.

MR. GILLIGAN: He can't possibly answer it if he doesn't know what the other 18 bids were.

19 A. Again, let me clarify my previous testimony. When we talk about a bid, I don't 20 21 -- I would be, again, shocked if there wasn't -- if Provident was the only one. That 22 23 does not sound right at all to me, because there would be -- there would have been other financial institutions that the investment differently, had you known that?

MR. MAUNDRELL: Objection. MR. BURKE: Objection. Calls for speculation. Assumes facts not in evidence.

A. Mike, I'd have to -- I'd have to think about what would have been required that was different. I don't know that I'm prepared to answer that question. It's -- it's been a while, so it's -- so I'd have to really think that through and I'm not sure what I would have done differently.

Q. Mr. Matthews, you mentioned something about Provident's bid being the best, or words to that effect. Do you remember that testimony?

A. Um-hmm.

17 Q. Were there other bids to buy OHSL 18 in the summer of 1999?

19 A. I was not privy to the, to the bids themselves, but I was aware generally that 20 21 there was a -- was a process that the investment bankers had followed that included 22 entertaining other bidders. And that other companies had looked at the company, had either submitted lower bids or, or had declined to bankers would have talked to.

Now, whether they had given indications of interest that did not rise to the level of a formal, written bid, I don't know As I said before, I don't recall whether that was the case, but Provident was -- could not have been the only institution that the bankers talked to.

Q. Ken Hanauer was the largest OHSL shareholder, is that correct?

MR. BURKE: Objection. Calls for 11 12 speculation. 13

MR. GILLIGAN: If you know.

14 A. I do recall that he had a -- he 15 didn't have a majority of the shares, if I recall correctly, but he did have -- I seem to 16 17 recall a substantial plurality of the shares being held by Ken and maybe some affiliates, 19 trusts, children. 20

Q. Does 4.9 percent shares that he controlled sound about right?

A. I don't recall. I couldn't give you a percentage.

Q. How did Mr. Hanauer vote his shares?

12 kinds of voting agreements. You can have a -you can have in effect a voting trust where someone places securities in a trust to be -to be voted in a certain way. A proxy is a 17

19 referring to a voting agreement, I'm communicating to you that there was an 20 understanding between the parties that the 21 company would make an effort to ensure that the officers and directors voted in favor of the

19 Q. What pages are you referring to? A. Well, I'm referring to the body of 20 the prospectus and proxy statement, which starts -- it's really the third page of the document, on to the end of the document. But I would not have -- I would not have analyzed or really had any opinion about the specific

A. Again, I think that there was a provision in one of the documents that I don't have a specific recollection about that dealt with voting, but I don't recall that there were any separate instruments that constituted full voting trust or voting agreements per se.

Q. As part of this transaction, did someone from KMK review OHSL's Board minutes and major committee minutes for the last five years or so?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Is that typically done in mergers and acquisitions of this type?

MR BURKE: Objection. Calls for speculation.

 Sometimes it is and sometimes it isn't. It's not -- certainly not necessary.

Q. Okay. Let me direct your attention to Defendant's Exhibit 1. Did someone from KMK read every word and look at every number in that document?

A. I don't know.

Q. Did you read the first page of Defendant's Exhibit 1?

A. I don't think I did.

Q. Who wrote the first page of 9 Defendant's Exhibit 1? 10

MR. BURKE: Objection, foundation. 11 Calls for speculation.

A. I don't know.

13 Q. Do you know what computer system Defendant's Exhibit 1 came off, the entire 14

A. No.

19 Q. Do you know what computer system 20 the first page of Defendant's Exhibit I came 21

Q. I said the whole document and then 24 I narrowed it to the first page.

MR. MAUNDRELL: Objection. MR. BURKE: This is an OHSL

7 document. Are you talking if he was counsel 8 for OHSL, counsel for Provident? I mean, what

9 are you talking about? Or as Provident's counsel would he be concerned about OHSL? The 10 11 question is ambiguous.

12 A. Yes. I -- Mike, I -- I think that 13 depends on so many different things. As Provident's lawyer here, I wasn't -- I was not 14 ló concerned with who signed the cover letter to the proxy statement. 16

17 And, and unless there was something, you know, major going on that we all 18 needed to know about -- Provident needed to 19 20 know about or I needed to know about, whether

Q. And what was that belief based upon?

A. That was based upon, again, the information from Cliff and the investment bankers that the directors were enthusiastic about the transaction.

That is a false representation of his testimony. Calls for speculation, incomplete hypothetical.

MR. MAUNDRELL: And I'll join in with that.

A. Again, not necessarily For example, he may have had personal issues that were irrelevant to what was in the best interest of the shareholders, for all I know, based on the speculation. But I'm telling you 15 what my understanding was at the time the 16

17 merger agreement was signed, was that everybody was on board and enthusiastic about the 18

19 transaction. 20

Q. How would you have expected Mr. Hanauer to have voted his personal shares? MR. BURKE: Objection.

MR. MAUNDRELL: Objection. MR. GILLIGAN: Answer if you can.

MR. BURKE: Calls for speculation.

Hanauer voted his shares and the shares he controlled against the merger transaction.

Does that surprise you?

MR. BURKE: Objection.

MR. MAUNDRELL: Objection.

MR. BURKE: Calls for speculation.

7 You're asking him to assume double, triple 8 levels of speculation here and then draw conclusions. It's an improper question. 10 Objection to form.

11 You know, again, depending upon 12 why he did that, maybe he changed his mind again for some personal reasons, I don't know. 14 You know, I'm surprised, based upon my 15 knowledge at the time the merger agreement was 16 signed, because again, I expected that 17 everybody was -- was in favor of the 18 transaction.

19 It was a good transaction for the shareholders, so that's -- and that was -- and 21 it was my belief that that was how all of the directors and officers of the company felt about the transaction at that time. So you

24 know, if I knew more, perhaps.

Q. Based on what we've discussed

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	today, as the lead outside counsel would you have wanted to know more based upon these representations? MR. BURKE: Objection. GILLIGAN: I'm just trying to understand your question, Mike. In other words, you've represented something that Tim doesn't know, that is that when Hanauer voted, he voted against the transaction, right? MR. BRAUTIGAM: Right. And also that he did not believe the transaction was in the best interest of OHSL shareholders. MR. BURKE: Which you MR. GILLIGAN: You're saying he testified to that? MR. BRAUTIGAM: Yes. MR. GILLIGAN: Okay. Now you're asking Tim to assume that to be accurate? MR. BRAUTIGAM: No. I'm	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	MR. As the lead outside counsel for Provident Bank, if you had known that Mr. Hanauer was against the transaction, would you have done anything differently? MR. BURKE: Objection. Misstates the record. MR. GILLIGAN: Objection. At what time? A. At what time? Q. At any point in time, up to and including the December 3rd, 1999 closing. MR. BURKE: Objection. Misstates the record. Assumes facts not in evidence. MR. MAUNDRELL: I'll join in with	Page 69

tact 5 MR. BRAUTIGAM: Yes. Ó MR. GILLIGAN: Okay. And then what's the question with -- based on those 8 facts? What are you asking him? 9 MR. BRAUTIGAM: As lead outside 10 counsel, would he have wanted to know more. 11 MR. GILLIGAN: After the fact. after the vote had taken place? Well, it has 12 13 14 MR. BURKE: It has to be. 15 MR. GILLIGAN: Go ahead. 16 MR. BRAUTIGAM: I think there are 17 different votes. My question stands. There's 18 a vote as a director, there's a vote as a 19 shareholder. So my question goes to the summer 20 of 1999. 21 MR. BURKE: Objection. Compound 22 question. That's completely improper. You've 23 got totally different time frames. 24 THE WITNESS: Mike, I'm confused 25 as to your question as well, because --

And my answer at that time was, I believe that I would have to think about it. I mean, it was a complicated transaction. I don't know what the import of his objection or what his objections might have been, whether they would have been important to other shareholders or whether they were purely for 10 11 personal reasons. 12 I would -- I did not -- I would 13 not have known and would have had to inquire about whether this would have affected anybody 15 else's vote at the time the Board voted. There are so many different factors here, I just -- I 17 think this is a -- from my point of view, this 18 is a pure hypothetical and purely speculative, 19 because it's contrary to my understanding of 20 the facts at the time. 21 Q. But if you knew these things to be 22 true, you would have inquired further, is that 23 fair' 24 MR. BURKE: Objection.

MR. MAUNDRELL: Objection. Asked

You're asking him now to agree to your recharacterization and rephrasing of his answer and I object to that. A. I think I've answered this maybe twice, but MR. GILLIGAN: Then you don't have	Page 70	already answered the question about the vote as a member of the Board of Directors, so if we're now talking about how he voted his shares in whenever, December let's identify which one. MR. BURKE: Just make it a meaningful question, a clear question that you can get an answer to so we just don't have a mucked up record. THE WITNESS: Mike, which vote are you referring to? BY MR. BRAUTIGAM: Q. Okay. Let's talk about two votes. Mr. Hanauer, I believe, voted on August 2nd, 1999 as a director in favor of the merger transaction with Provident. Are you with me so far? A. I understand that. MR. GILLIGAN: Are you asking him if he knows that to be so? MR. BRAUTIGAM: No, I'm representing that to him. MR. GILLIGAN: All right, fine. BY MR. BRAUTIGAM: Q. Okay. If you had known that Mr. Hanauer did not believe that the transaction	Page 72
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	MR. BURKE: The vote as a shareholder that occurred a month after the proxy statement was issued? Is that what you're saying? MR. BRAUTIGAM: It occurred when it occurred. MR. BURKE: You're misleading the witness. MR. GILLIGAN: You can't answer it, Tim. MR. BURKE: Objection to speculation. MR. GILLIGAN: I instruct you not	Page 71	l was in the best interest of OHSL shareholders at or about August 2nd, 1999, would you have taken any action differently? MR. BURKE: Objection. MR. MAUNDRELL: Objection. MR. BURKE: Misstates the record. It also as counsel for Provident? MR. GILLIGAN: If you've already answered it, just refer to your answer. If you haven't answered, give an answer. I think he's already said that it has so many variables, he can't give you an answer. Isn't that what you testified to, or not?	age 73 to answer unless we get it clarified. Mike, all we're asking you to do is let's make sure what the question is. As I understand it, and I'm not familiar with all of the facts of the case, but you yourself mentioned there was a vote that Hanauer made sometime, I guess in the summer, having to do with -- as a Board of Directors member. And then we're talking about somebody voting their shares at the end of the day, if you will, in December. There's two different votes. And we keep trying to - he's testified to, or not? A. Mike, I -- at that time, and the 15 time that I'm referring to is the time that the merger agreement was executed -- and I note here that my recollection was correct, that he actually signed the definitive merger agreement -- I would have been surprised if he was opposed to the merger, because I had been told that he was in favor of the merger, that he had voted in favor of the merger, and that the entire Board was enthusiastic about the prospects of this merger. A. The question makes no sense to me, Mike, because there was no prior opportunity to vote as a shareholder against the transaction, as the question states.

Q. What I meant was he returned his proxy card voting against the transaction. That's what I meant by a prior opportunity to vote. Do you follow me?

Q. Okay. Let me represent --

A. Fundamentally, all you need is a 14 vote 15

Q. Let me represent to you that Mr. Hanauer made a presentation to the OHSL shareholders, and I think I even have the script and we can talk about it this afternoon.

19 Would it surprise you if Mr. 20

Hanauer made a presentation soliciting votes in favor of the transaction when he had 21

previously, at some point, voted his shares

23 against the transaction? 24

MR. BURKE: Objection. Misstates

25 the record.

MR. MAUNDRELL: Well, you're asking questions, Mike, about total hypotheticals based on things he didn't --MR. BURKE: Why don't you ask what he did?

A. The proxy cards could have sat in a mailbox until they were counted. I have no knowledge of what happened to the proxies prior to the shareholders meeting. They very well, as in many cases, would sit in a box, waiting to be tabulated.

Q. Would it surprise you if Mr. Hanauer ran a meeting, asking for votes in favor of the transaction, when he had voted his shares against the transaction?

MR. MAUNDRELL: Objection.

9	BY MR. BRAUTIGAM:
10	Q. Okay. Mr. Matthews, October 25th,
11	1999, Dante's restaurant, special meeting of
12	OHSL shareholders. Are you with me so far?
13	A. Yes.
14	Q Let me represent to you that Mr.

16	assembled OHSL shareholders. Are you with me
17	so far?
18	A. I assume your assumptions or

20	Q. Okay. Now, my next representation
21	is Mr. Hanauer at that meeting solicited the

2	Q. Okay. And can you accept my

5	A. No.
6	Q. Why not?
7	A. Because the votes were to be cast
8	at the meeting. And if he was present and in
9	person at the meeting to cast a vote. I do not 10	understand what you mean by having a prior
11	vote, or as having submitted a prior a prior

8	A. I don't have any knowledge of it,
9	wasn't there. And again, the question
10	assumes a process which, which is different
11	from what I understand to be the correct
12	corporate process for voting.
13	Q. Well, can you accept my
14	representation that Mr. Hanauer made a
15	presentation at the meeting?
16	A. Sure.
17	MR. BURKE: Objection. Asked and
18	answered.
19	Q. And can you accept my
20	representation that this presentation asked
21	shareholders to vote affirmatively in the
22	transaction?
23	MR. BURKE: Asked and answered.
24	Objection.
25	A. I can accept that as a statement answer that, Mike, so I think we ought to move 2 on. 3 Q. Mr. Matthews, are you generally familiar with the Hewlett Packard-Compaq combination? MR. BURKE: Objection to relevance. 8 A. I'm aware of the fact that it occurred, yes. Q. Okay. Are you aware of the fact 10 that one of the family members involved was a 12 director of Hewlett Packard? 13 A. No. 14 Q. Were you aware that this family 15 member, I think his name was David Packard, I'm not a hundred percent sure, voted in favor of the merger with Compaq as a director? 17 18 A. No. 19 Q. Were you aware that he later 20 changed his mind and actively lobbied against 21 the merger transaction -- voted his shares 22 against the merger transaction? 23 A. No. 24 Q. Yes, as you phrase the question 11 I'm going to have to say no, not necessarily, because it would not necessarily have concerned 12 me. And, in fact, it didn't concern me at the time, because again, I was told that he had 15 resigned for personal reasons. And I had no knowledge of the 16 17 Board meetings, I wasn't there. I was never present at Board meetings. And whether he voiced opposition to Provident's -- this transaction is totally something outside of my 21 knowledge. 22 Q. MR. BRAUTIGAM: What's the basis for that instruction? 3 MR. GILLIGAN: Based upon our discussion so far today? These are not --1 MR. BRAUTIGAM: I disagree with you. I think it's an improper instruction. MR. GILLIGAN: That's okay. BY MR. BRAUTIGAM: Q. Okay. Let's take a look at the 9 first page of Defendant's Exhibit!, the 10 sentence I'm particularly interessed in, Your 11 Board of Directors unanimously approved the 12 13 acquisition. Do you see that? 14 MR. BURKE: That's not what it 15 says. Please read the whole sentence. 16 MR. BRAUTIGAM: Jim, when you're asking the questions, you can read whatever 17 13 voud like BY MR. BRAUTIGAM: 19 20 Q. Do you see that sentence, sir? 21 A. I do. 22 MR. BURKE: That's not the 23 sentence. 24 Q. Okay. And that Board refers to the seven then existing members as of the date be referring to. BY MR. BRAUTIGAM: Q Okay. Can I direct your attention 3 to page 18 of the document? 5 MR. GILLIGAN: There's more than one page 18. Make sure we've got the right 6 one. Which document is this? 8 A. Eighteen of the proxy statement 9 and prospectus? 10 Q. Yes. 11 A. Or the merger agreement? 12 Q. Page 18. I think we're doing 13 fine. 14 A. Okav. 15 Q Do you see the section The 16 Acquisition? 17 A. The Acquisition, yes. 18 Q. And this is talking about OHSL, 19 correct? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. And this was written by OHSL, 22 correct? 23 MR MAUNDRELL: Objection Form, 24 foundation. Calls for speculation. 25 MR. GILLIGAN: Are you talking

9	THE WITNESS: Should I read the
10	chure section verbatim to answer your
11	question, Mike?
12	MR. BRAUTIGAM: No, if you know if
13	uley wrote that section of the document you
14	can tell me. It you don't know, that's fine
15	MR. BURKE: Does OHSI, include
16	OHSE's counsel or just OHSE?
17	MR. BRAUTIGAM: Okay. Let me ask
18	a unterest dueznon.
19	MR. BURKE: Okay.
20	BY MR. BRAUTIGAM:
21	Q. Mr. Matthews, do you know who
22	wrote the section The Acquisition?
43	A. When you say who wrote it what do
24	you mean by that? Do you mean the content?
25	Q Yes.

MR. MAUNDRELL: Objection. Form, foundation. Calls for speculation. MR. GILLIGAN: Can you repeat the question? I think you changed it at the end. I'm confused. MR. MAUNDRELL: You did BY MR. BRAUTIGAM: Q. Do you want me to rephrase it? 8 9 A. Are you asking me whether I know 10 it was seven versus eight directors? 11 Q. No. I'm asking -- I'm representing to you that on August 2nd, 1999. OHSL had seven directors. Are you with me? 13 14 A. Yes. 15 MR. GILLIGAN: Are you asking him 16 if he knew that at that time as well? 17 MR. BRAUTIGAM: No. 18 MR. GILLIGAN: Okay, you're 19 just -- okay. Go ahead. 20 BY MR. BRAUTIGAM: 21 Q. So my question is, when the Board of Directors of OHSL is used, that refers to the then existing directors as of August 2nd, 23 1999, correct? 25 MR. BURKE: Objection.

A. Would have been supplied by OHSL or through its counsel. Q Okay. KMK did not write that, 4 correct? ŝ MR. MAUNDRELL: Objection. 6 A. That is correct. 7 Q. Okay. Let's look at some distinct things here. The first paragraph, the first line refers to the Board of Directors of OHSL. 9 10 Do you see that? l l A. No, I don't see that. Under The 12 Acquisition? 13 Q. Actually Background of the 14 Acquisition. 15 A. Oh, the next section? 16 Q. Yes. Subsection, I think. 17 A. Okav. 18 Q. Okay. And is it fair to say that 19 the Board of Directors refers to the then seven Board members of OHSL on August 2nd, 1999? 20 21 MR. BURKE: Objection. 22 MR. MAUNDRELL: Objection. 23 Q. We had eight, Mr. Herron resigned 24 effective July 30th, 1999. Are you with me? 25 MR. BURKE: Objection, form.

MR. MAUNDRELL: Objection. Form, foundation, speculation. 3 MR. BURKE: Foundation. 4 That would be my impression. 5 Q. Okay. Now, if you look at the second paragraph on the next page. The Board 6 7 continued to allocate its time at monthly meetings to review its options. And at a 9 meeting held in February 1999, the Board appointed an ad hoc committee of the Board of 10 Directors consisting of three directors to 11 research and evaluate any benefits to the sale 12 13 of OHSL. Do you see that? 14 A. Yes, I do 15 Q There's a reference to the Board 16 of Directors in that paragraph, correct? 17 18 Q. And the time reference is February 19 of 1999, correct? 20 A. Right. Q Did the Board's composition change 21 between February 1999 and August 2nd, 1999? 22 MR. BURKE: Objection. Calls for 23 speculation. This witness has no firsthand knowledge. You may answer.

            MR. MAUNDRELL: Objection.
 8
         A. I, I think it's clear that, that 9
    the Board of Directors as a whole, regardless of changes in composition that may have occurred during that intervening period of time, did, in fact, in various forms engage in

MR. BRAUTIGAM: We don't need speaking objections. 3 MR. MAUNDRELL: That's what he 4 asked. He just asked. 5 MR. BRAUTIGAM: I think we're 6 doing fine. I can say who's responsible for the document, we can go page by page, use the 7 8 index. I think we're doing fine. But I respectfully request that you keep the speaking objections to a minimum. 10 11 MR. GILLIGAN: I asked you a question, I didn't make an objection. I simply 12 asked you to be fair and say, you know, he's --14 look, whether you're doing fine or not really 15 is irrelevant. 16 Let me just explain to you the 17 problem, which is he's already talked about, 18 for example, this first page ad nauseam and indicated to you he had nothing to do with the 20 preparation of that, never saw it before, et 21 cetera. So then when you ask him about the whole document, you're asking him a repetitious question, which he's already answered that the answer would be no. Do you see what I'm -- either

13
            MR. MAUNDRELL: Well, it doesn't been asked and answered previously, Mr.

16
    Brautigam. I've got news for you.
17
         A. What do you mean by, responsible 18

MR. BRAUTIGAM: Actually, I don't. 2 MR. GILLIGAN: It's a document 3 made up of many parts, some of which he was involved in, some of which he was not. He's 4 3 already testified to that. 6 MR. BURKE: Exactly 7 MR. BRAUTIGAM. Great. We're 8 going to get there, okay? If I could just have 9 a dialogue with the witness. I think we'll be 10 fine. In other words --MR. GILLIGAN: Go ahead and answer 11 12 the question. 13 MR. BRAUTIGAM: Thank you. 14 THE WITNESS Well, no --15 MR. GILLIGAN: Don't answer the question unless you get another -- let's just get another question. I'll instruct you not to 17 18 answer. And with that, I ask you to rephrase 19 20 MR. BRAUTIGAM: Fine. I'm happy 21 to accommodate you. MR. GILLIGAN: And I'm trying to 22 23 tell you why so that we can move ahead. 24 MR. BRAUTIGAM: Well, I didn't understand you, but I'm happy to accommodate

Page 118 you and rephrase the question. BY MR. BRAUTIGAM: Q. Mr. Matthews, was there a person 3 or entity with overall responsibility for the finalization of Defendant's Exhibit 1? 5 6 MR. BURKE: Objection. 7 Speculation, foundation. A. I would say not, because, I mean, 8 the way you phrased the question, was there a single person or entity responsible for 10 finalizing this document? I would say no. 11 12 Q. Okay. Was there a person or 13 entity responsible for finalizing certain 14 sections of the document? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Okay. With respect to the sections provided by Provident or KMK, were you 17 18 that person? 19 A. No. 20 Q. Who was that person? 21 A. Mark Weiss would have been primary -- and again, let me back up. Which part of the document are you referring to, because we would have had different 25 responsibilities for different parts.

Q. How is my recitation incorrect? 2 A. Well, first of all --3 MR. GILLIGAN: You restated his 4 answer. I told you in the beginning. I only 5 let him answer questions - if you don't understand his answer, then ask him about what 6 7 part you don't understand. But he just 8 answered your question, so it's in black and white after she types it up, so that's it. 9 10 if you have to rephrase his 11 answer, you're therefore automatically asking a 12 repetitious question. He gave you an answer. If you don't understand part of it, I don't have a problem with you asking him about what 15 you don't understand about it, but I do object 16 and I will not let him answer questions that 17 restate testimony already given. 18 MR. BRAUTIGAM: Let's go off the 19 record briefly. 20 MR. GILLIGAN: Fine. 21 (Brief recess.) BY MR. BRAUTIGAM: 23 Q. Mr. Matthews, are you familiar 24 with Section 11 of the Securities Act of 1933?

A. No. I'm familiar that there is

I was primarily responsible, for example, for The Merger Agreement portion of 2 3 this document. Mark was not involved in the negotiation of the definitive agreement. With 4 5 regard to the proxy statement and prospectus, that was a joint effort of OHSL's counsel and 6 KMK, and I did not take a primary lead in that part of the process. That's -- that would have been -- that would have been Mark Weiss for 9 10 KMK. Q. And who was Mark Weiss' opposite 11 12 number at the Dinsmore firm? 13 MR. BURKE: Objection to form. 14 A. I -- I don't recall. I don't 15 recall. 16 Q So if I understand your testimony 1 correctly, the portions of Defendant's Exhibit I that constitute the proxy statement are the joint responsibility of Provident, KMK, OHSL, 20 and Dinsmore; is that correct? 21 MR. BURKE: Objection. Misstates 22 prior testimony. 23 MR. GILLIGAN: Objection. 2+ A. That's not what I said. 25 MR. GILLIGAN: That's the answer.

Asked and 8 answered. 9 Q. Okay. Could I direct your attention to the table of contents of Defendant's Exhibit 1? Who wrote Questions and 12 Answers About the Acquisition? 13 MR. BURKE: Objection, foundation. 14 Well, the last time you asked me a 15 question about something that was written, I explained that that term can be used in a 17 couple different contexts. Are you talking about who the scrivener of the information was, or who supplied the content for that particular 20 section? 21 Q. Well, let's take both questions. 22 A. Okav. 23 Q. With respect to the questions and answers, who was the scrivener for the words that appear on those pages?

A. I'm not exactly -- I've probably -- I think I recall reading this as it was close to the end of the preparation process. I, I was not involved in the process of preparing it.

Q. And what was the purpose for your reading that?

18 To review it generally for form and to determine if there was any information 19 of which I had knowledge that might need to be 20 21 corrected. 22

Q. Was there any?
